

17 - 26
August
2022

360° OF EU AFFAIRS. KEY CONTROVERSIES IN THE EU

PRESENTATION

---

This summer school co-organised by the Université libre de Bruxelles, the University of Bucharest and the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid examines current challenges of EU integration; through academic lectures, roundtables and panels with academics, officials and experts in EU affairs, it provides an introduction to EU politics with a focus on key controversies, EU institutions and decision-making.

It is an initiation to understand the EU and an opportunity to discover Brussels, as capital of Belgium and headquarter of EU institutions and many international organisations.

TARGET AUDIENCE

---

The summer school is designed for BA and MA students as well as young professionals with a background in political science, law, history, international relations, etc. Participants should have a sufficient command of English to interact and work on group presentations.

METHODOLOGY

---

An innovative pedagogical approach is proposed combining in-depth knowledge in EU studies, learning of new professional skills, study visits, networking and mentoring sessions and tours of Brussels.

PROGRAMME

- Key policy controversies in the EU
- Key policy controversies in international affairs
- EU in the world
- Crisis controversies: ambitions and reality of institutional cooperation between the EU and NATO
- Gender equality, non-discrimination and intersectionality in the EU
- Free movement in the EU
- Fundamental rights in the EU
- The European Green Deal
- Actors, policies and network in EU multilevel democracy
- Multilevel democracy in a complex policy : parliaments in the COFE

ASSESSMENT

Assessment is based on active participation and group presentations. Participants will receive a certificate of completion at the end of the programme.

It was really enriching and I had the chance to deepen a lot of topics and issues at the core of the European Union. ”

Lorena, Spain, 2021 (online)

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Information and application : <https://bit.ly/3kuGf3p>

Location: Institute for European Studies, Université libre de Bruxelles, Belgium

Registration fee : €950 | Accommodation fee : €400

Students enrolled at a CIVIS member university can apply for a mobility grant.

summerschool@ulb.be

