SUMMER SCHOOL 360° OF EU AFFAIRS

Institute for European Studies and Faculty of Philosophy and Social Sciences

19 - 31 July 2021, online

PRESENTATION

This two-week summer school organised by the Institute for European Studies and the Faculty of Philosophy and Social Sciences examines current challenges of EU integration. Through academic lectures, roundtables and panels with high-level officials and experts in EU affairs, it provides an introduction to EU politics with a focus on EU institutions, interests representation, lobbying and decision-making.

METHODOLOGY

An innovative pedagogical approach is proposed combining in-depth knowledge in EU studies, learning of new professional skills and networking and mentoring sessions.

PROGRAMME

The programme includes lectures and other activities every week day and covers:
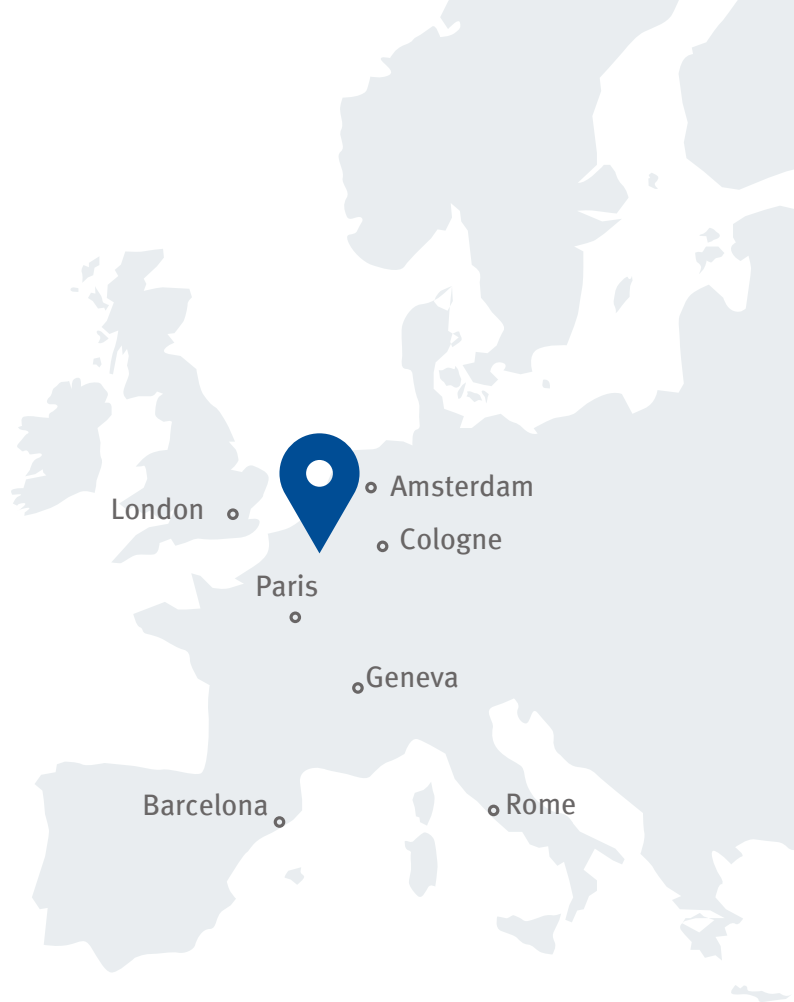

- The challenges of the EU & Introduction to the politics of the EU
- The deepening and widening of EU integration process
- A more (geo)political EU Commission
- The European Parliament
- The power of Member States
- Judicial politics. Rights, norms and values
- Interest representation in Brussels: mapping the actors
- EU in the world. Normative power vs strategic interest?
- Decision-making in the EU
- Negotiating the EU budget
